Background

Industrial zoning Government Regulation is needed as a guideline and policy for developing industrial zoning to respond to the current challenges of industrial zoning:

- Industrial development still concentrated in Java.
- The basic and supporting infrastructure of the industrial sector is not yet optimal, especially outside Java.
- The need for support between the Central Government and Regional Governments in an integrated manner in the realization of industrial zoning.

Objective

- Providing a legal basis for ministries/agencies and regional governments to formulate programs and budget plans in developing industrial parks.
- Encouraging the spread of industry outside Java by providing incentives for industry players who invest outside Java.
- Encouraging the development of infrastructure and connectivity to support the industrial sector.
- Increase the synergy and coordination of relevant stakeholders for industrial regional development.
